1 About this Documentation

The following information will help you make better use of the documentation.

- Target Groups, Contents (p. 12)
- Terminology (p. 13)
1.1 Target Groups, Contents

This documentation is addressed to the end user.

This documentation describes working with a typical groupware installation and configuration. The installed version and the configuration of your groupware might differ from what is described here.

If this documentation contains descriptions of functions that are not available in your installation, please contact your administrator or host. As the groupware’s software has a modularised structure consisting of individual applications, it is possible to purchase additional applications or functions through upgrades.

The contents of this documentation are also available in the on-line help.
1.2 Terminology

Account

An account or a user account is an access permission to a computer system. Account examples:
- groupware account
- GMail account
- DropBox account
- Facebook account

To get access, a user has to log in with the user name and the password. Based on the account, the computer system identifies the individual users. This allows assigning specific properties to a user, like access permissions or settings.

Related topics: Managing Accounts (p. 276)

Allowlist

An allowlist is a list of domain names or email addresses that you trust.

Related topics: Using Allowlists (p. 285)

App

An application is a groupware component that provides certain functions. Example: With the E-Mail application you can send, receive and organise E-Mail messages.

Distribution list

A distribution list consists of a distribution list name and a number of email addresses of internal users or external partners. You can create and edit your distribution lists. Other users cannot see your distribution lists. Distribution lists can be used as follows:
- send an email to multiple contacts
- add internal or external participants to an appointment or a task
- grant permissions to multiple users or guests by inviting them to a share

Depending on the configuration, specific distribution lists are predefined for all users.

Related topics: Adding Distribution Lists (p. 118)

Domain

A domain is the address used to open a page on the Internet. Example: www.example.com. A domain is often also referred to as web address or Internet address.

Related topics: Using Allowlists (p. 285)

E-Mail thread

An E-Mail thread is an E-Mail conversation. The E-Mail thread includes the original E-Mail and all replies. All E-Mail messages in an E-Mail thread have the same subject. The current E-Mail corresponds to the last reply.

Related topics: The E-Mail list (p. 61)

Elements

Elements of the user interface. Example: windows, labels, buttons.

Related topics: General Description of the User Interface (p. 22)

External email account

Your groupware email account. You will automatically get this account. You cannot delete this account.

Related topics: Editing the primary E-Mail account (p. 277)

External email account

The administrator can set up functional email accounts and assign them to specific users. A functional email account has the following properties:
- It serves a specific purpose like communicating with customers. Typical examples are support@example.com, info@example.com.
- It can be used jointly by multiple users, to read, reply or send email messages.
The administrator defines the users who are allowed to use a functional email account.

- Users can neither edit nor delete a functional email account.

Related topics: Disabling or enabling functional email accounts (p. 278)

External participant

A person that is not an internal groupware user but that participates in an appointment or task.

Folders

Folders contain app specific objects. In some apps, folders can also include subfolders. Some folders are preset, other folders can be set up by the user. Folder examples: email folders, address books, calendars, task folders

Related topics: Managing Data with Folders (p. 254)

Global address book

Contains the contact data for all internal users. The users can edit their own personal data in the global address book.

Group

A group consists of a group name and a number of internal users. Groups can be used as follows:

- add to an appointment or task
- grant permissions by inviting to a share

Depending on the configuration, specific groups are predefined.

Depending on the groupware configuration, users can get the permission to create additional groups.

Related topics: Managing Groups (p. 179)

Groupware

The software described in this documentation.

Guest

A person who received an invitation to a share by another user or has been added to an appointment or task as an external participant. Each guest user belongs to the Guests group. This group cannot be changed or deleted.

Objects

Objects are groupware data that are created and organised by the user. Examples: E-Mail messages, contacts, appointments, tasks, documents, files, folders, address books, calendars

Participant

A user invited to an appointment or task.

Resource

Resources are rooms or devices that can be added to an appointment. A resource consists of a resource name, an E-Mail address and an optional description.

You can only add resources that are not used for other appointments. Depending on the configuration, specific resources are predefined. Depending on the configuration, users can get the permission to create additional resources.

Related topics: Managing Resources (p. 180)

Session

A session is a connection between a client, e.g. a browser, an E-Mail client or a smartphone app and a server, e.g. the groupware server. A session starts with the login and ends with the logout.

Related topics: Displaying or Signing Out from Active Clients (p. 286)

Tabs

Tabs provide an easy and simple way of keeping the Inbox folder neat. With tabs, incoming E-Mail messages are saved separated by sender in the Inbox folder. Depending on the configuration, specific tabs are predefined. You can set additional tabs according to your needs.

Tabs can only be used in the Inbox folder. If you need additional storage options, use the folder view to create E-Mail folders.

     Example: The argument is "minutes".
     - The condition is met for the subject "minutes".
     - The condition is also met for the subject "meeting minutes".
   - Criterion: "matches"

     Example: The argument is "minutes*". The "*" character is a wildcard for any characters.
     - The condition is met for the subject "minutes".
     - The condition is not met for the subject "meeting minutes".
   - Criterion: "Regex"
     The condition is met if the subject contains the characters provided by the regular expression in the argument. Regular expressions allow complex requests. More information can be found on respective sites on the Web. The following, very simple regular expression should give an insight to the topic.
     Example: The argument is "organ(i|s)ation". The expression "(i|s)" stands for either the "i" or the "s" character.
     - The condition is met for the subject "minutes".
     - The condition is also met for the subject "organisation".
     - The condition is not met for the subject "Organic".

11.1.2 What is the purpose of permissions?

Permissions define what an internal user or external partner is allowed to do with a particular folder and its contents.

- As an internal user you have preset permissions for existing folders.
  - When creating a new folder, you will be granted the preset permissions.
- When inviting other people to a shared item, you grant them specific permissions.
  - Note: Depending on the configuration, you might not be able to grant permissions to other persons.

You have the following permissions for folders that already exist:

- You are the owner of your personal folders.
  - The owner has the same permissions as an administrator. The owner has all permissions for this folder. The owner can grant other users permissions to the folder.
- You are allowed to create folders and objects in public folders.
- You are allowed to view folders and read objects in the Global Address book.

Depending on where you create a new folder, particular rights are assigned to you.

- If you create a new folder in a personal folder:
  - You are the owner.
  - In the E-Mail app and the Drive app, other users inherit their permissions for the parent folder. In the other apps, other users do not inherit permissions.
- If you create a new folder in the Public files folder:
  - You are the owner.
  - Other users will get no rights. You have to set the permissions for the new folder. If you then create new subfolders in this folder, the permissions for this folder are inherited by the new subfolders.
- If you create a new folder in the shared folder of another user:
  - The user who shared the folder is the administrator of the new folder.
  - You are the author of the new folder.
    - An author is allowed to change or delete existing objects, to create and edit new objects, and to create subfolders.
  - Other users will get the same rights as for the parent folder.
    - Note: You need to have the permission to create objects in the shared folder.

12.2 Externally Linked Images in E-Mail Messages

Externally linked images are not part of the E-Mail itself. They are loaded from an external source upon reading the E-Mail. You can define whether those images are loaded and displayed. If you allow loading externally linked images, your privacy and computer are endangered by the following security issues:

▪ The sender can gather information, e.g. whether your E-Mail address is valid or when you retrieved the E-Mail. Such information can e.g. be used to purposefully send spam E-Mail messages.
▪ The externally linked graphic can be used to infect your computer with malware.

How to define the loading of externally linked images:

1. Click the Settings icon on the right side of the menu bar. Click on Settings.
2. In the side bar, click on Security.
3. You can enable or disable the Allow pre-loading of externally linked images option in the display area.
   ▪ If externally linked images are not to be displayed, disable the setting.
   ▪ If externally linked images are to be loaded and displayed, enable the setting.

12.3 Showing the E-Mail Authenticity

For incoming email messages, the server checks whether the email actually originates from the provided sender address. The check is run to identify illegitimate email messages. The email authenticity check provides one of the following results:

- The email is classified as potentially dangerous. In the detail view, the sender is displayed in red font colour.
- The authenticity cannot definitely be verified. In the detail view, the sender is displayed in yellow font colour.
- The verification was successful. In the detail view, the sender is displayed in green font colour.
- The verification was successful. The email was sent from a trustworthy address.

Depending on the configuration, you can define the email messages for which the authenticity is displayed.

How to define the E-Mail messages for which the authenticity is displayed:

1. Click the Settings icon on the right side of the menu bar. Click on Settings.
2. In the side bar, click on Security.
3. Select an entry from the Show email authenticity drop-down in the display area.
   - Disabled. No authenticity is displayed. If a hoster marks the E-Mail sent from the hoster’s address as trustworthy though, this authenticity will be displayed.
   - Suspicious and unclassified e-mail messages only. Displays the authenticity for the following E-Mail messages:
     - E-Mail messages that are classified as potentially dangerous.
     - E-Mail messages for which the authenticity could not definitely be verified
   - All E-Mail messages. Displays the authenticity for all E-Mail messages.

12.4 Using Allowlists

Depending on the configuration, you can create an allowlist. All email messages from senders who are recorded in the allowlist, are treated as follows:

- The E-Mail is not treated as unwanted E-Mail.
- The E-Mail source is labeled as trustworthy.
- Externally linked images are immediately loaded and displayed.

Warning: When making entries into the allowlist, several security measures are circumvented. Only enter email addresses or domain names in the allowlist if you absolutely trust them.

How to create an allowlist:

1. Click the Settings icon on the right side of the menu bar. Click on Settings.
2. In the side bar, click on Security.
3. Enter the respective E-Mail addresses or domain names as a comma separated list in the input field below Always trust e-mail messages from the following senders in the display area. Please also note:
   - When entering multiple E-Mail addresses or domain names, separate the entries with a comma.
   - Make sure to enter the exact E-Mail addresses or domain names.

12.5 Displaying or Signing Out from Active Clients

You can be signed in to your groupware account with different clients on various devices simultaneously, e.g. with desktop browsers, E-Mail clients, tablets, smartphones. With each login, an active session is created on the groupware server. On the following occasions it can make sense to list active sessions and to terminate them if required:

- You want to check whether you are logged in to a certain device or client.
- You want to log out from a certain device.
- You want to prevent reaching the maximum number of allowed sessions as you then could no longer log in from an additional device.

The following options are available:

- display all active clients
- terminate single sessions
- terminate all sessions except the current one

How to edit the active clients:

1. Click the Settings icon on the right side of the menu bar. Click on Settings.
2. In the side bar, click on Security. Click on Active clients.
   In the display area, all devices will be listed which you are currently signed in with.
3. In order to terminate sessions, do one of the following:
   - In order to terminate a single session, click on Sign out next to the client.
   - To terminate all sessions except the active one, click on Sign out from all clients.

12.6 Using Additional Passwords for Applications

In addition to your groupware login method, you can use additional passwords that are limited for that use on certain apps and devices. Such passwords can be used for signing in to the Drive App, Mail App, CalDav or CardDav client. This method has the following advantages:

▪ The clients can access specific groupware functions only. This enhances the security for the user.
▪ In the groupware settings you can view the clients and devices you created passwords for.
▪ You can delete passwords and prevent a client access, e.g. when losing a device.

The following options are available:
▪ create a new password for a specific app
▪ display or delete existing app passwords

How to use passwords for a specific app:

1. Click the Settings icon on the right side of the menu bar. Click on Settings.

    In the side bar, click on Security. Click on Application Passwords.

    The Application Passwords page will be displayed.

2. In the Application drop-down below Add passwords, select the app for which you want to add a password.

    Enter a name for the new password in Password name. This name is later used for displaying the app's credentials.

3. Click on Add new password.

    The Password Created window opens. It shows the user name for the login and an automatically created password. You can use those credentials to sign in to the selected app.

    Notes:
    ▪ This password is only valid for the selected app.
    ▪ This password will only be displayed once. As soon as you close the window, you can no longer display the password.

4. To delete a password for a specific app, identify the password below Existing passwords. Click the Delete icon next to the password.

    To sign in to this app in the future, either use your groupware credentials or create another password for this app.

12.7 Multi-Factor Authentication

By default, you only log in to the groupware with your username and password. Depending on the configuration, you can increase the security when logging in by using an additional authentication that is executed after the usual login. This procedure is generally called multi-factor authentication.

The additional authentication is done by verifying your identity with a device owned by you. The following options are available to verify your identity:

- Google Authenticator
  You need to install an app on your mobile device to get an auto-generated code. You need to enter this code to confirm your identity.

- Yubikey, Google Security Key or compatible FIDO device
  With a security key that is connected with your PC via USB or wirelessly, your identity is verified during the login.

- send code via SMS
  An SMS with a code is sent to your mobile device. You need to enter this code to confirm your identity.

The following options are available:

▪ Guard Settings (p. 313)

Information on additional security-related topics can be found in Data Security (p. 281).
13.1 Setting up Guard

Prior to being able to use Guard, you have to apply some basic settings:

▪ You have to enter a Guard security password that is used to encrypt data and to access encrypted data.

▪ Enter a secondary email address that is used if you forget your Guard security password. In this case, use the function for resetting the Guard security password. A new password will then be sent to you. For security reasons, it is highly recommended to enter a secondary email address for this purpose. Otherwise the new password will be sent to your groupware email account.

There are two options for using the basic settings:

▪ Define the basic settings while initially using an encryption function.

▪ Define the basic settings in the groupware settings before using the encryption function.

How to define the basic settings when initially using an encryption function:

1. Enable the encryption function when composing an email, encrypting a file or uploading a new file by clicking on the Encrypt icon.

2. You consecutively will be asked to enter a Guard security password and a secondary E-Mail address. Enter the data.

How to define the basic settings before initially using encryption:

1. Click the Settings icon on the right side of the menu bar. Click on Settings.

2. In the side bar, click on Security. Click on Guard Security. When initially opening the Guard security settings, the Guard Create Security Keys window opens.

3. In the Password field, enter the password that you want to use for encrypting your data. Confirm the password in the Verify field by entering it again.

4. In the Enter new secondary email field, enter the email address that is used for receiving a temporary password for resetting your Guard security password.
13.2 Encrypting E-Mail Conversations

The following options are available:

▪ Reading encrypted E-Mail messages (p. 297)
▪ Sending encrypted E-Mail messages (p. 298)
▪ How can external recipients read an encrypted E-Mail? (p. 299)
▪ Encrypting incoming E-Mail messages by using a filter rule (p. 299)

13.2.1 Reading encrypted E-Mail messages

To be able to read an encrypted email, the Guard security password is required.

How to read an encrypted E-Mail:

1. Select an email with the Encrypted icon 🕵️. In the detail view, the notification Secure Email, enter your Guard security password is displayed.

   Note: If, when having used guard the last time, you set that Guard should remember the security password, the email will be displayed immediately.

2. Enter the Guard security password.

   You can define how long the security password should be remembered by Guard. To do so, enable Keep me logged into Guard. Select a time range from the list.

   In the Guard security settings, you can define a default value for the time range.

3. Click on OK. The content is shown in plain text.

   If the E-Mail includes attachments, functions for using the attachments' decrypted or encrypted versions will be displayed.

13.2.2 Sending encrypted E-Mail messages

The following options are available:

▪ Send an E-Mail encrypted. Only you and the recipients can read the E-Mail content.
▪ Sending an E-Mail with a signature. The signature ensures that the recipient is able to recognise whether the E-Mail content has been changed in transport.
▪ Sending an encrypted E-Mail with a signature.

How to send an encrypted E-Mail:

1. Click the Enable Encryption icon in the button bar of the email editing window. A function bar will be displayed above the email text. Text will be displayed within the function bar notifying you about the encryption of the email.
   Icons next to the recipients indicate whether the message can be encrypted for this recipient. If hovering over an icon, a description will be displayed.
2. In order to show additional options, click on Options in the function bar.
   ▪ In order to additionally sign the E-Mail, enable Sign e-mail. You can also click on the Options menu in the button bar.
   ▪ To enable The E-Mail recipient to send an encrypted reply, the recipient needs to have your public key. You can send your public key as an attachment. To do so, enable Attach my public key. You can also click on the Options menu in the button bar.
   ▪ If Show advanced settings is enabled in the Guard settings, you can set the PGP format. By default, encrypted E-Mail messages are sent in PGP Mime format. Some older clients only support PGP Inline. If the recipient uses such a client, enable Inline. Note: If you use Inline, you can not send E-Mail messages in HTML format.
3. Click on Send.
   When sending to new recipients, a window is displayed that allows to send notes for opening the encrypted E-Mail to the recipients.

13.2.3 How can external recipients read an encrypted E-Mail?

You can also send encrypted E-Mail messages to external recipients who are not groupware users. When adding an external recipient, Guard checks whether a public key is available for this E-Mail address. Depending on the result, Guard uses different procedures for sending the encrypted E-Mail:

- If there is a public key for the recipient:
  - The message will be sent encrypted using this key. The recipient can read the message with his/her private key.

- If there is no public key for the recipient:
  - If the external user already has a guest account, he/she will receive an email with the link to the login page of his/her guest account. When having logged in, he/she can read the encrypted email on the guest page. He/she can send an encrypted reply from this page.
  - If there is no guest account, a guest account will be created. The external recipient will receive an email with a link to a guest page and an automatically created password. The user logs in to the guest page. Then he/she can create an own password. Depending on the configuration, the automatically created password and the link to the guest page will be sent in separate emails.
  - Depending on the configuration, guest account email messages will be deleted from the server after a specific number of days.
  - The external recipient can send an encrypted reply to the encrypted email. It is not possible to add additional recipients though.

13.3 Encrypting E-Mail Conversations with Autocrypt

The Autocrypt standard has been developed to provide automatic email encryption. This is done as follows:

- Each email sent includes the public key of the sender in the email header. This key will be imported automatically or manually by the recipient.

Autocrypt has the following limitations:

- There is no check for automatically imported keys to see whether they are correct or fake.
- For this reason, an automatically imported key is not used for verifying the sender's signature.

To manage Autocrypt keys and verify them later, the following options are available:

- Importing Autocrypt keys (p. 301)
- Managing Autocrypt keys (p. 302)
- Transferring Autocrypt keys to other clients (p. 303)
13.3.1 Importing Autocrypt keys

In the advanced Guard settings, you can define whether Autocrypt keys are automatically imported. You can set the following:

- All Autocrypt keys received are automatically imported.
  An automatically imported key is used as follows:
  - An outgoing message to this contact can be encrypted with this key.
  - The signature of an incoming message from this contact will not be verified with the key. That means: It cannot be verified if the sender is real and the message content has been unaltered.

- For each Autocrypt key received you will be asked whether to import the key. Details of the Autocrypt key will be shown allowing you to check its validity. If you import the key, it will be regarded as verified.
  A verified key will be used as follows:
  - An outgoing message to this contact can be encrypted with this key.
  - The signature of an incoming message from this contact will be verified using the key. If the verification is successful, the sender is real and the message content is unaltered.

How to define how Autocrypt keys are imported:

1. Click the Settings icon on the right side of the menu bar. Click on Settings.
2. In the side bar, click on Security. Click on Guard.
3. Enable Show advanced settings. Items for managing keys and for the Autocrypt settings will be displayed.
4. Below Autocrypt, proceed as follows:
   - To import Autocrypt keys, enable Search incoming e-mail messages for keys in header.
   - If you enable Import autocrypt keys without asking, Autocrypt keys will be imported automatically.
     This is the default setting if Show advanced settings is disabled.
   - If you disable Import autocrypt keys without asking, you will be asked whether you want to import the key. The key details are shown so that you can check the validity of the key. If you accept the key, it will be regarded as verified.

The following options are available:

- Show a list of imported Autocrypt keys
  You can verify automatically imported Autocrypt keys later. A verified key will be used as follows:
  - An outgoing message to this contact can be encrypted with this key.
  - The signature of an incoming message from this contact will be verified using the key. If the verification is successful, the sender is real and the message content is unaltered.
- Delete Autocrypt keys

How to display the list of Autocrypt keys:

1. Click the Settings icon on the right side of the menu bar. Click on Settings.
2. In the side bar, click on Security. Click on Guard.
3. Enable Show advanced settings. Items for managing keys and for the Autocrypt settings will be displayed.
4. Click on Autocrypt Keys below Keys. The Autocrypt Keys window opens. It displays a list of Autocrypt keys.
   To show details, click on a key ID.

How to verify an Autocrypt key in the Autocrypt Keys window:

1. Verify a key by comparing its displayed fingerprint with the correct fingerprint. You get the correct fingerprint from the sender of the E-Mail the key was imported from.
2. To verify the key, enable Verified.

How to delete an Autocrypt key in the Autocrypt Keys window:

1. Click the Delete icon next to a key.
2. Confirm that you want to delete the key.

To decrypt messages received on another E-Mail client and to sign outgoing messages, you have to copy your private keys to the other client. To do so, you can use the Autocrypt transfer service. The Autocrypt transfer service sends you an E-Mail with your private keys. This E-Mail is encrypted with a 36 digit code.

How to transfer your Autocrypt keys to another client:

1. Click the Settings icon on the right side of the menu bar. Click on Settings.

13.7.2 Managing your own keys

On the Guard security settings page, you can:

▪ display your own keys, display details
▪ add new keys
  If you own several keys, you can define which key should be the current one. The current key is used for encrypting data.
▪ add user IDs
  When adding additional user IDs to a key, you can use the key for multiple E-Mail accounts.
▪ download keys
▪ delete keys

How to display your own keys or make a key the current one:

1. Enable the Show Advanced Settings checkbox below Advanced. Click on Your keys below Keys. The Your Keys window opens.
   ▪ Your existing keys are displayed. Each key consists of a master key and a sub-key.
     ▫ Among other things, the master key is used for signing your E-Mail messages.
     ▫ The sub-key is used for encrypting and decrypting E-Mail messages and files.
   ▪ Depending on the requirement, Guard automatically uses the master key or the subkey.

2. If your key list contains more than one key, you can define the current key. To do so, enable the Current checkbox next to the main key. From now on, the current key will be used for encryption.

3. To display details for a key, click the Details icon next to a key. The Key Details window opens. To view the key's signatures, click on Signatures.

How to add a new key in the Your Keys window:

1. Click the Add icon + next to Keys on Server. The Adding Keys window opens.

2. The following options are available:
   ▪ To add a private key, click on Upload Private Key. Select a file containing a private key. The Upload Private Keys window opens. To upload the new key, enter your Guard security password. Enter a new password for the new key.

   ▪ To create a new key pair, click on Create New Keys. The Create Guard Security Keys window opens. Enter a password for the new key. Confirm the password. The new key consists of a master key and a corresponding sub-key. The new key will be entered on top of your key list. The new key becomes the current key.
How to add an additional user ID in the Your Keys window:

1. Click the Edit icon next to a key. The Add User ID window opens.
2. Enter a name for the user ID. Enter the E-Mail address that you want to use for this key.
   Enter your password for this key.

How to download a key in the Your Keys window:

1. Click the Download icon next to a key.
2. Define whether to download your private key only, your public key only or both keys.
   Caution: Your private key will be downloaded in encrypted form. You should not download your private key to a publicly accessible system, though.

How to delete a key in the Your Keys window:

Warning: If you delete a private key, you can no longer decrypt objects that have been encrypted with this key. If you are unsure, you should not delete the key but revoke it. A revoked key can no longer be used for encryption. But you can still decrypt objects that have been encrypted with this key.

1. Click the Delete icon next to a key. The Delete Private Key window opens.
2. The following options are available:
   - To revoke a private key, click on Revoke.
     if you revoke a key, it will no longer be used. But you can still decrypt objects that have been encrypted with this key. For this reason, revoking a key is better than deleting it.
     Enter the password for the private key. If required, select a reason for revoking the key.
     Click on Revoke.
   - In order to delete a private key, click on Delete.
     Warning: If you delete a private key, you can no longer decrypt objects that have been encrypted with this key.
     Enter the password for the private key.
     Click the Delete button.
