2 Changes relevant for Operators

2.1 Changes of Database Schema

Change #SCR-567 New table in oxguard guest database shards to keep track of guest shard update tasks

A new, empty table, needs to be created for oxguard guest shards to keep track of any update tasks specific to the guest shards. This table will simply contain id VARCHAR(150), success (bit). This table will be used to record any checks or corrections required in the guest shards.
